New products from Montana Colors. March 2010

Bye-bye "Boina", hello cap.

No more lost caps!

From this month of March forward, the Hardcore version from Montana Colors will have a new lid; the "cap protector"- Yet another step taken with the satisfaction of our customers in mind. Better logistics and control, the innovation assures that no one will be left without a cap. The box has also changed a bit in height to accommodate the can better, making it more easily recognizable and better looking.
